

Taboo or not taboo? Challenging our assumptions in stroke care

28th September, 9.30am-4.30pm Dewar's Centre, Perth

9.30-9.35	Welcome (Linda Campbell &amp; Gillian Capriotti Chairs SSNF &amp; SSAHPF)
9.35-9.45	Opened by Ms Gillian McKay, MSP, Scottish Green Party, Party Spokesperson on Health &amp; Social Care and Convenor of the Scottish Government Cross Party Working Group on Stroke
9.45 – 10.15	Progressive stroke pathway and thrombectomy – Neil Muir, Public Health Scotland.
10.15 – 10.45	Guideline recommendations for 'Further Rehabilitation': what's new and what's controversial? - Mr Douglas Horn, Chair National Stroke Voices &amp; Frederike van Wijck, Professor of Neurological Rehabilitation Sciences, Glasgow Caledonian University
10.45 – 11.15	Coffee /exhibitors/posters
11.15 – 12.15	Knowing what matters, doing what matters: Using co-production to shape stroke rehabilitation research – Dr Jacqui Morris. University of Dundee. Meaningful medicine: A whole team approach –Joanna Murphy, Nicola Simpson, Megan Campbell, Lynnsay Gammie and Carey Moss. NHS Lothian. Technology enriched stroke rehabilitation – Mr Alister Mejury &amp; Dr Gillian Sweeney. University of Strathclyde/ NHS Lanarkshire. Speaker Q&amp;A
12.15 – 12.30	SSNF AGM
12.15 – 1.15	LUNCH – posters/exhibitors
1.15 – 1.30	SSAHPF AGM
1.30-1.50	Women's health &amp; stroke: What do we need to consider – Dr Amy Small, CHSS.
1.50-2.10	Getting the BASICS right: Discharge planning for bladder and bowel function in stroke – Anne Sanderson, Hospital Bladder &amp; Bowel Specialist, NHS Lothian.

SSNF/SSAHPF Joint Conference 2023

Taboo or not taboo? Challenging our assumptions in stroke care

28th September, 9.30am-4.30pm Dewar's Centre, Perth

2.10-2.40	Anxiety after stroke: how to make sense of it, and how to help – Dr Louise Roach, NHS Lanarkshire.
2.40-2.50	Comfort break
2.50-3.50	Different strokes for different folks – Dearbhla Dempsey, Community Neuro-Rehabilitation Team, Mid West Ireland.
3.50-4.20	Speaker panel Q & A
4.20-4.30	Closing remarks. Poster prize/quiz prize presentations.
16.30	Close of event

Conference Exhibitors:

NB: This programme may be subject to some slight changes ahead of or on the day